CHORAL CONCERT

Next in Fairfax UMC's Music Series.....

"Children of the Light" Dancers

SATURDAY, MARCH 14 - 7:00P.M.

SUNDAY, MARCH 15, 2009 - 5:30P.M.

During our Open Doors worship service

Children of the Light Dancers is a Christian ministry of dance and drama bringing God's love to the Washington Metropolitan Area since 1991. Participants are taught how to honor God, bless those in need around them, and inspire faith through their dancing. Their latest project helped raise awareness of modern day slavery.

Fairfax UMC Music Department would like to thank the choir of Dranesville UMC for all their hard work, effort and wonderful co-operation in making this afternoon's concert possible. We look forward to performing together again in the future.

This afternoon's concert is the third of our new Music Series at Fairfax United Methodist Church. The series continues until June 2009 and a separate brochure is available with more information on upcoming events.

Contributions are always welcome to help sustain the series.
